

PAUL NAGY AWARD:

Presented to:

Chief Matt Workman
Warrenton Police Department

2023

In recognition of your unwavering commitment to the Oregon Association Chiefs of Police through initiative, dedicated service and leadership excellence. Your many contributions have positively impacted your peers and enhanced the reputation of the law enforcement profession in Oregon.

Your selfless service has demonstrated unfaltering commitment to the values and mission of the Oregon Association Chiefs of Police. In 2014 you became the representative for OACP Board District 1. You have demonstrated tireless leadership as the Co-Chair of the OACP Membership Committee and the OACP Scholarship Committee since 2014 and also served as a Co-Chair of the Education & Training Committee. You were elected to the Oregon Association Chiefs of Police Executive Board in 2018 and served as President for 2021-2022. You continue your association involvement serving on the executive board as the Past President for 2022-2023.

You have worked tirelessly to welcome new members and present yourself as a positive and professional representative of the Oregon Association Chiefs of Police. The Paul Nagy Award is intended for exemplary service to the association which exceeds the high standards and contributions normally made by members. Your contributions to the Oregon Association Chiefs of Police epitomizes the purpose of this award.

The OACP is a better, stronger, and more effective association because of your contributions and leadership; thereby making you a worthy recipient of this highest of honors.

Oregon Association Chiefs of Police Annual Conference
April 6, 2023
Bend, Oregon

KARLYN CAMPBELL AWARD

Presented to:

Chief Jim Ferraris (Ret.)
Woodburn Police Department

2023

In recognition of your willingness to selflessly give of your time, experience, and wisdom to support and mentor law enforcement leaders in Oregon and beyond. These qualities exhibit the leadership and professionalism valued by the Oregon Association Chiefs of Police.

Your commitment to excellence and to current and future leaders has been demonstrated through mentoring others on skill development, providing ongoing guidance and offering timely advice.

The policing profession requires increasing competence and integrity from their leaders. Current and future police executives are better leaders and their agencies more successful and professional due to the impacts of your mentorship and your selfless sacrifice of time and experience.

Your contributions as a member, mentor, and leader of the OACP have resulted in a better organization thereby making you a worthy recipient of this important award.

Oregon Association Chiefs of Police Annual Conference
April 6, 2023
Bend, Oregon

PRESIDENT'S AWARD

Presented to:

Chief Ken Rueben
Philomath Police Department

2023

This President's award is presented to Chief Ken Rueben for his unwavering commitment to the excellence of the Oregon Association Chiefs of Police and his leadership in promoting the continued professionalism of the public safety profession. Your passion and advocacy are not only heard but felt throughout the State of Oregon and you have represented us all with integrity and honor.

Oregon Association Chiefs of Police Annual Conference
April 6, 2023
Bend, Oregon